

Criminal Law Consulting

For Writers, Producers, and Filmmakers

~Legalese Made Easy~

I am an experienced and successful criminal attorney. I consult with writers and filmmakers on crime and legal drama.

I help writers and filmmakers:

- Use legal terms correctly
- Understand criminal law and procedure used in their projects
- Learn characters' roles in the criminal justice system
- Create more authentic crime and legal stories

“A lot of people who are making films about legal things occasionally get things wrong, and it’s really frustrating. But more often they’ll gloss over the process and the legal meat of a subject because they’re afraid of it.” -- Joe Bailey Jr., award-winning documentary filmmaker.

My goal is to eliminate any doubts or fears about producing crime and legal projects, and to help ensure you get it right.

Have a crime or legal project in any phase of development or production? Get a free initial consultation to see if I can help.
